

Pinball FX3 Releases on September 26, 2017

The Sequel to the World's Leading Pinball Platform is Packed with New Content, Features and Services Releasing on PlayStation 4, Xbox One and PC

San Francisco, CA - September 6, 2017 – Zen Studios is pleased to announce that Pinball FX3 will release on PlayStation 4, Xbox One and PC on Tuesday, September 26, 2017. The biggest, most community-driven pinball game ever created features a host of brand new features and services that elevate competition and take the videogame pinball experience to new heights.

Universal Classics™ Pinball will accompany the Pinball FX3 launch on September 26, and will also release for Zen Pinball as in-app purchases on iOS, Google Play and Mac. Universal Classics Pinball combines three captivating tables based on the blockbuster films Jaws™, the Back to the Future™ trilogy, and E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial™.

Pinball FX3 features intense multiplayer matchups and user generated tournaments providing non-stop competitive play. Zen Studios has released a new trailer highlighting these features:
